

Installation Service

Contributed by World of Timber
Last Updated Monday, 08 October 2007

World of Timber offers a full installation service of your new timber floor.

Our professional tradespeople are fully licenced and fully insured. All occupational health & safety procedures are followed from start to finish. Our team of experienced, professional installers can boast a track record of quality workmanship – you can be assured we care about your floor and will take as much pride in the end result as you.

Services include;

Subfloor preparation:

Assessing your particular needs – ventilation assessment, leveling, moisture sealing barriers on concrete, plywood or batten fixing, construction or repair of bearers & joists

Installation: We install , solid timber floors, Engineered or 'Floating' floors, Overlay, Parquetry, and Timber decking.

Repairs: We can repair existing timber floors from previous damage, from floorboards to the bearers and joists.

Sanding: Coating: We can prepare, sand and coat any new or existing timber floor using the most appropriate techniques and coating systems.

All products, material, and workmanship from World of Timber is guaranteed to be of the highest order.